

*D*aeth Dwynwen, tywysoges o'r 5ed ganrif, yn nawddsant cariadon Cymru, pan roddodd Duw y gallu iddi wireddu dymuniadau cariadon ym mhob rhan o Gymru. Er ei bod eisoes wedi dyweddïo, cwmpodd Dwynwen a Maelon mewn cariad. Gan wybod na allai'r berthynas weithio, ymddangosodd angel ym mreuddwyd Dwynwen a rhewi Maelon, gan ei droi'n flocyn o iâ. Â'i chalon wedi'i thorri, trodd Dwynwen at Dduw, a gweddïo arno i ddadmer Maelon. Er na briododd Dwynwen byth, daeth yn nawddsant cariadon Cymru.

*5*th century princess, Dwynwen, became patron saint of Welsh lovers, when God gave her the power to grant the wishes of true lovers. Although already engaged, Dwynwen fell hopelessly in love with Maelon. Knowing that the relationship could not last, an angel appeared in Dwynwen's dreams and froze Maelon, turning him into a block of ice. Heartbroken, Dwynwen turned to God and prayed that Maelon be thawed, and although she would never marry, her name became forever linked to the lovers of Wales.
